WASHINGTON, D. C.

G. BAILEY, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. WASHINGTON, D. C.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

The National Era is a weekly newspaper, devoted to Literature and Politics.

In Literature, it aims to unite the Beautiful with the True, and to make both immediately subservient to the practical purposes of everyday life.

subservient to the practical purposes of every-day life.

In Politics, it advocates the Rights of Man, and the Equality of Rights, and opposes whatever violates or tends to violate them, whether this be involuntary Personal Servitude, Civil Despotism, Spiritual Absolutism, Class Legislation, the Selfishness of Capital, the Tyranny of Combination, the Oppression of a Majority, or the Exactions of Party.

It holds no fellowship with the Whig and Democratic organizations, believing that the main issues on which they have been arrayed against each other are obsolete or settled, and that they are now chiefly used by the Sectional Interest of Slavery, to impair the love of Liberty natural to the American mind, and to subjugate the American People to its rule. Disclaming all connection with them, it yet sympathizes with those of their adherents who are honestly seeking through them to advance the substantial interests of the country, although it must believe that they have not chosen the better way.

In no sense is it the organ of a Party, or a mere Party Paper, but absolutely "free and independent," claiming to speak "by authority" for nobody except its editor, and recognising no authority in any quarter to prescribe its course and policy.

The Eighth Volume of the Era will commence on the first of January ensuing, and be onlarged by the addition of four columns. We have neglected no means that could promise to make it an agreeable companion for the Household, and an efficient co-adjutor to the enlighted Politician. It has secured able correspondents at home and abroad, and no journal in the country can surpass the Era as it respects contributors to its Literary Bepartment.

The Era publishes condensed reports of the proceedings of Congress, explains movements in that body, the causes of which do not always lie upon the surface, and from its position is conabled to keep a constant watch upon the action of the Federal Government in relation to all questions at issue between Liberty and Slavery.

PROSPECTUS OF THE DAILY NATIONAL ERA.

I shall issue, on the 2d day of January ensuing, the DAILY NATIONAL ERA, a Political and Literary Newspaper.

Able correspondents, at home and abroad, have been secured, and ample provision has been made for its Literary Miscellany.

The extensive subscription of the Weekly Era, which, during the year about to close, has reached the number of twenty-eight thousand, must make it an eligible medium for advertisers.

The Daily Era will be issued on a sheet as large as that of the Daily National Intelligencer, on the 2d day of January, 1854, and daily thereafter, until the 1st of September, 1854, (or long er, should Congress continue in session.) LITTELL'S LIVING AGE-1854.

A beautiful Engraving in each Number.

THE LIVING AGE has been abundantly honored by the approbation of the best judges; it has been pronounced to be sound and vigorous; various and entertaining; full of spirit and life; uniting the qualities which gratify the scholar, the philosopher, and the man of business, with those which recommend it to their wives and children. We shall now endeavor to add to these intrinsic excellences the greater attractions of Art, and, beginning with 1884, Every Number will contain an Impression from a beautiful Steel Plate.

The 52 Plates a year will alone be worth the price The 52 Plates a year will alone be worth the price a beautiful Steel Plate.

The 52 Plates a year will alone be worth the price of subscription.

This work is made up of the elaborate and stately essays of the Edinburgh, Quarterly, and other Reviews; and Blackwood's noble criticisms on poetry, his keen political commentaries, highly wrought tales, and vivid descriptions of rural and mountain scenery; and the contributions to literature, history, and common life, by the sugacious Spectator, the sparkling Examiner, the judicious Athenaum, the shusy and industrious Literary Gazente, the sensible and comprehensive Britannia, the sober and respectable Christian Observer; these are intermixed with the military and naval reminiscences of the United Service, and with the best articles of the Dublin University, New Monthly, Fraser's, Tait's, Ainswooth's, Hood's, and Sporting Magazines, and of Chambers admirable Journal. We do not consider it beneath our dignity to borrew wit and wisdom from Panch, and, when we think it good enough, make use of the thunder of The Times. We shall increase our variety by importations from the continent of Europe, and from the new growth of the British colonies.

THE LIVING AGE is published every Saturday, by LITTELL, SON, & COMPANY, corner of Tremont and Bromfield streets, Boston. Price 12; cents a number, or six dollars a year in advance. Remit tances for any period will be thankfully received and promptly attended to.

POSTAGE FREE.

We will send the Laving Age, postage free, to all subscribers within the United States who remit in advance, directly to the office of publication, the sum of six dollars; thus placing our distant subscribers on the same footing as those nearer to us, and making the whole country our neighborhood.

BUCHANAN ON GRAPE CULTURE,

AND LONGWORTH ON THE STRAWBERRY. AND LONGWORTH ON THE STRAWBERRY.

THIS day published, the Fifth Edition, Revised.

One volume 12mo, cloth, 63 cents.

This volume should be in the bands of every cultivator of these delicious fruits, for it embodies, in a compact and available form, the experience of accumplished and practical Horticulturists on subjects which have come directly under their own observation for a long series of years. Of a former edition of "Buchanan on the Grape," we subjoin a few NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

Mr. Downing in his Hortical PRESS.

Mr. Downing, in his Horticulturist, says. "It deals more with facts, with actual experience and observation, and less with speculation, supposition, and belief, than anything on this topic that has yet appeared in the United States. In other words, a man u sy take it, and plant a vineyard, and raise grapes with of instructive information relative to the culture of the Grape." - Farmer's and Planter's Encyclopadia.

"Will be found to convey the most opportune and valuable instruction, to all interested in the subject." Neill's Fruit and Flower Garden.

Those who desire the book sent by mail will receive it, prepaid, by remitting the price, by letter postpaid, to the Publishers.

sexes, of good moral character.

It has been the purpose of the Trustees of this School, from the first, to make it both safe and inviting to Students; and we believe we may new safely recommend it, under the supervision and eare of President Leonard G. Calkins, whose ability to that responsible office has been most happily tested, assisted by a competent "Board of Instruction." Free from the unholy influences, republican habits, and Christian example, associated with manual labor, we think parents must feel a degree of security, begotten by no other set of circumstances.

One arrangement in this Institution, not to be everlooked in this day of "public speaking," is a Rhetorical Class, with daily exercises in extemporaneous speaking, under the careful training of the President.

The student of small means, aspiring to a thorough intellectual education by his own energies, will find in this College sympathy and aid in his arduous and noble work.

The Manual Labor Department of the School is under the supervision of Mr. Luther Wellington, a practical farmer, a kind and benevolent man, on a farm of one hundred and fifty seven acres.

A primary school is thought by Mi's Kezinh King, a thorough and efficient teacher, for the accommodition of any one who may not be prepared to enter the Academic Department.

The boarding hall will be conducted by Mr. Lyman Butts, who, together with an amiable family, will make boarding both cheap and pleasant.

The College year is divided into three terms: The first term, of fourteen weeks, will open on the first Thursday in September.

McGrawwille, February, 1854. Ten Thousand Copies in Ten Days. Uncle Tom Belipsed by the Lamplighter!

We have no hesitation in pronouncing The Lamplighter one of the most original, interesting, graphic, and affecting tales, that has lately appeared. We predict for it a sale and popularity equal to the most successful of modern romances.—Dusly Eve. Traveller, Boston. For delicate and forcible delineation of character his work is hardly excelled.—Boston Journal.

credit to any writer.—Daily Advertiser, Boston.

The Lamplighter teaches important truths, which cannot be too frequently impressed upon the minds of all; and no one can study its instructive and fascinating pages, without being made better by its kindly influences. Its author has evidently a highly cultivated and refined, as well as an original and imaginative mind, and writes with the case, the classical correctness of diction, and that choice selection of terms, which indicate the good English scholar. In this respect, the Lamplighter is much superior to Uncle Tom's Cabin, whose inclegances meet us at every turn.—Boston Daily Atlas.

The life of Little Gerty, as portrayed in the Lamplighter, is as deeply affecting as the best sketches of Dickens.
